Dear Mr. Williams,

You are invited to travel from North Dartmouth, MA on 2 December 2007 to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba via Washington, DC and return to North Dartmouth, MA via Washington, DC on or about 8 December 2007. The purpose of the travel is to accompany defense counsel with the Office of Military Commissions of the Department of Defense. These orders formalize our prior conversations regarding the trip.

Travel by rail or aircraft is limited to the most economical accommodations to satisfy mission requirements, as may be determined by the appropriate transportation officer. Authorized non-contract carrier. Non-government fare authorized. Authorized reimbursement for actual lodging cost. Variation authorized. While en route and away from your home or place of business on the mission, your actual transportation expenses, including taxi and metro, and per diem expenses in lieu of subsistence, will be paid in accordance with Vol II of the Joint Travel Regulations. Receipts and ticket stubs will be required to substantiate your claims for cost of transportation and subsistence for items in excess of $75.00. Address any inquiries regarding this travel order to Ms. Clemencia Jemison in our office at (202) 761-0133, Ext 104.

Submission of a travel claim is required within 5 days after completion of travel. Attach a copy of this travel order and all applicable receipts and mail to Department of Defense, Office of General Counsel, Chief Defense Counsel Office, 1600 Defense Pentagon, Washington, DC 20301-1600, or you may fax the entire package to (202) 761-0510.
